

70.00%

Sally and Al Levering attained this magnificent percentage at a game in the South Suburban Bridge Center on February 7th.

Sally writes — We were happy to score in the 70s. When the gods are good, we benefit. I'm very lucky to have a great partner. Also, a good game contributes to marital bliss.

In 24 hands Sally and Al had 7 top boards and 4 ties for top. Well played hands indeed.

CONGRATULATIONS

Duplicate bridge is a competitive activity among players in the U.S., Canada, Mexico and Bermuda, plus others from countries throughout the world, who not only join their local sanctioned duplicate governing body, but ACBL (American Contract Bridge League) as well. Players are ranked according to the number of masterpoints they have earned.

The 50 duplicate bridge players who scored highest during the month of January by playing in Highland, Valparaiso, Calumet Township, Chesterton and Portage, are: Alfred Simmons, Louis Nimnicht, Zafar Khan, Ruth Westberg, Alan Yngve, Dave Bigler, James O'Connell, Barbara Graegin, Wayne Carpenter, Michael Brissette, Daryl Fraley, Barbara Walczak, Trudi McKamey, Joseph Chin, Patricia Mikuta, James Angell, Jerry Palm, Laverne Niksch, Norman Szewczyk, Carolyn Potasnik, Terry Bauer, Yuan Hsu, Wayne Hiser, Helen Miller, Charles Tomes, William Birk, Anna Urlick, John Goring, Marci Tomes, Robert Porter, Robert Ferguson, Donald Valiska, Carol Osgerby, Rick Warburton, Jennie Alsobrooks, Mary Kocevar, Jane Krueger, John Teshima, Daniel Spain, Hilda Connor, Carol Miller, Mary Schultz, Robert Butz, Edmond d'Ouille, Joel Charpentier, George Roeper, Don Giedemann, Marge Hedegard, Delphine Slater and Gale Osgerby.

Below that is the rest of the first paragraph in the article as it was sent in.

There are 15 categories from 0-5 points to 10,000+. There are 10,000 - 20,000 players in many categories. In the accompanying photo are pictured those players from Northwest Indiana who placed in the top 100 among all the ACBL players in total club points, along with their placement and masterpoint category.
