The Board of Directors is the sole judge of its own membership.

Section 6.2 Directors’ Fiduciary Duties and Standards of Conduct

Each Director (aka Representative) is subject to a duty of loyalty to the corporation and a duty of care in the performance of his duties as a Director.

Section 6.3 Board membership drawn from club groups

Each director shall serve as a representative of the club group that elects him. No individual may represent more than one group of clubs. The Board shall revisit the grouping of clubs and the allocation of directors at least every three (3) years starting in 2019. Using table count and geographical location as the primary criteria, the Board shall adjust the club groupings and allocation of directors to maintain a fair representation for each club grouping. Any adjustment shall be recorded in the Unit’s Standing Rules and communicated to the Unit’s membership in a manner consistent with provisions of these Bylaws at least sixty (60) days prior to the next election.

Section 6.4 Nomination and Election of Directors

At a time reasonably in advance of each annual election of directors, the President shall appoint an election committee. The election committee shall solicit eligible candidates in each constituent group that has a vacancy or a term expiring to stand for election to the Board of Directors. The method and procedure for nomination and election shall be as described in the Standing Rules of the Unit.

Section 6.5 At-Large Election

If, despite reasonable efforts to obtain candidates for any of the vacant or expiring positions on the Board, the election committee is unable to identify a candidate, the committee will so report in writing to the Board. The sitting Board shall then elect by majority vote members on an at-large basis. These elected at-large members shall serve one-year terms until such time that eligible candidates within the particular constituent group stand for election.

Section 6.6 Number of Board Members

The Board of Directors, including all officers, shall consist of at least (9) nine, but not more than thirteen (13) voting members. All Directors must be members in good standing of the ACBL as well as members of the Unit. The immediate Past President, if not an elected member of the Board, shall serve for one year, as a non-voting Board member.

Section 6.7 Terms of Office

Directors shall be elected each year for terms of office for three (3) years each, the terms to commence with the first Board meeting following election. The Directors from those club groupings which are allocated two or more representatives shall hold staggered terms of three (3) years each. Upon approval of these Bylaws, the initial election of the Board members by the constituent club groups, including club groups allocated multiple representatives and their terms of office, shall be set forth in the Unit's Standing Rules.

All Board members shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified or until their sooner death, resignation, or removal. No Director may serve more than three (3) consecutive terms, but may again be elected to the Board after at least three (3) years.

Section 6.10 Waiver of Notice

Attendance of a Director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Director attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. A waiver of notice signed by the Director or Directors, whether before or after the time stated for the meeting, shall be equivalent to the giving of notice.

Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, as long as members participating in such meeting can hear one another. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.
